

August 5, 2011

Guests: G2K – Delano Seiveright, Colin Burgher, Marlon Morgan

The G2K apologized for their use of the term “go after” directed to media practitioners and explained that this was a misunderstanding.

Other points of discussion included:-

- Confidentiality and proper management of newsroom: The MAJ explained that each newsroom was held accountable for publishing. Breaches by staff can subject them to disciplinary action.
- Introduction of complaints council: The MAJ mentioned that the PAJ had revised a Code of Conduct. Also, there are broadcasting regulations to which all media houses are subject.
- Identifying political leaning of journalists. The MAJ disagreed that this was necessary.

The MAJ advised they were always open for further dialogue