

The Media Association Jamaica Limited (MAJ) is saddened by the passing of Chad Young, Chief Executive Officer of the high energy radio station Zip FM and the reggae station Irie FM.

Chad was left to manage Grove Broadcasting Limited, which owns Zip and Irie, after his father, the stalwart Karl Young died. He carried on his father's legacy well.

The MAJ expresses condolences to his family and colleagues and wishes them comfort in this period of grief.